

Jerusalem Bible - Kingdom Come - Christ with St. Matthew and Elijah - the Killing of Christ XXI

- I. In fact In a small mob Christ was caught in the last supper, Elijah stormed into help him but was killed - the tragedy was Elijah was the only Apostle who knew and tried, all other Apostles were busy preaching Christ in Ionia

In Ionia then the word was heard and an Insurrection explosively broke out - there were large masses storming into Jerusalem were the Romans hanged Christ, and all the people of the world found a miracle - Christ walked free and lay down in the water.

The modern film Children of Men by Cuarón develops this idea of Christ as an unwilling hero who then reads, reflects and follows daily life in a car with an old intellectual who is then in another rendition a black jazz teacher who is killed, and the unwilling hero then falls to insurrection - the scene best described as getting a coffee to go, in black elliptical principle of television viewing then shot from the outside of destruction and his falling dead.

- II. Remarking on Christ as Ascension beating the film Children of Men - a Modern Tel Aviv Preview film by Sirohi - on the permanence of health and even the meaning of faith.

In fact imagine a young Arab prophet who is having sex in cultured ways and describing the revolution, descending from the staircase, meeting Jewish and black brothers and leading a police style watch on mass insurrection.
